

Code of Conduct

Play well with others.

Don't do anything illegal.

We reserve the right to toss you out at our discretion, without a refund, for any reason we deem reasonable, but most certainly for being disrespectful or disruptive to others. Illegal activities will not be tolerated. 614Con staff have been instructed to report illegal activities to law enforcement.

It's a proven fact that people learn better when they have little to no fear regarding how they are perceived - intelligence, gender, or otherwise. We are all in different places in our quest for knowledge and have something to offer everyone. No one should ever feel lesser for any reason. Period. We would say "don't be a jerk", but instead, we ask you to be awesome. Seek opportunities to connect, inspire, and encourage.

If you have questions or concerns, please find a 614Con staff member.

Thank you and enjoy the conference!
